Australia's premier journal for writings on

THEORY
CRITICISM
HISTORY
FILM PRACTICE
MULTIMEDIA
TELEVISION and
PHOTOGRAPHY

Each monograph consists of about 30,000 words and deals with a specific topic. Some issues will be single authored, and others edited collections. The writing is scholarly and, at the same time, accessible to an interested general readership. It is also intended that the issues will be of particular relevance for teaching at secondary level. Australian film/television/video/multimedia will be its principal, but not exclusive, focus.

Read with interest in places as far apart as AUSTRIA and CANADA, with one of the series currently set as a text at Exeter University in the UK.

Keep abreast with the Australian media by subscribing to and reading extended analytical studies on Australian film, television, video and multimedia.

Each issue will retail for $39.00.

Save 10% and secure your copy as soon as it is published by subscribing to four issues for $140.00.

Published quarterly by ATOM in association with the AFI and Deakin University's School of Visual, Performing and Media Arts.

Please return to ATOM: PO Box 2211, St Kilda West Post Office, St Kilda Victoria 3182

Order Form Only $39.00 (includes postage). Overseas orders please add $10 for postage.
